I SLA—THE JEWS SHELTERLESS AND SUFPERING.

By cable to the Dispatch.]

ST. PETERSBURG, August 27.—Advices from Eksterinosisty, the scene of the recent riots against the Jews, say that 366 houses were wrecked and plundered during the progress of the riots, and the losses sustained by the Jews are estimated at 611,000 roubles. Fourteen of the Russians who were wounded by the troops in quelling the outbreak have since died, making the botal number of persons killed twenty-eight. Numerous cases of Jews-hating are reported at places elsewhere than Ekaterinosisty, but the police and troops are acting with energy, and have in most imstances promptly suppressed any attempt at outrages against the Jews. At Bertinosisty, but the police and troops are acting with energy, and have in most imstances promptly suppressed any attempt at outrages against the Jews.
